It is said that the number of husbands sojour-ning in Indiana for the purpose of getting divor-ces from their wives under the facile laws of that State, is becoming greater and greater.-If men would come oftener to Kentucky to get wives, they would probably go less oftener to Indiana to get rid of them.

We never knew a more striking exemplifica-tion of the old maxim that "one extreme begets another" than in the case of Henry Clay and his son Jim.

On the evening of the 17th of September, the day of the departure of the last mail from Salt Lake, thirteen births were reported in Elder Kimball's family. We think that Brigham must be getting jealous. He may well tremble for his supremacy among the Utah women.

Mr. Douglas is to be pitied. He is perfectly furious against Mr. Buchanan, but dares not abuse him. To use a comparison more strong than delicate-he is like a Scotchman that's got the itch, and no finger nails to scratch with. In Sweden, a man who is seen four times drunk is deprived of a vote at elections. In some of our large cities this thing is reversed—a drunken man is made to vote four times. That part of Indiana called "the Pocket" didn't exhibit much intelligence in the late election. Indiana's brains are evidently not in her

ELECTION SCENES IN NORTH CAROLINA. - A correspondent of the Pendleton, S. C. Messenger, reporting a trip through Spartanburg to North Carolina, gives some illustrations of "election times," which may be interesting and sugges-

"Arrived at the election ground, there was a sight wort seeing. Apple brandy ruled. There were about as many women as men on the ground. This is a peculiar feature in North Carolina gatherings-the women nearly all atonce saw a fellow get into a fight at one of those elections, while his wife was along with him. Pastor, Fourthstreet, between Monroe and Quincy; services The front yard of the loggery had been graveled with very coarse gravel. Our hero pulled off his shirt and pitched in, but was soon made to bite the gravel. Hero No. 2 jumped on him, but was no sooner on than off, for our first-named hero's wife gathered a hoop pole and such a lamming as hero No. 2 got it has not been my fortune to see since. All bands stood off and saw it well done. Hero No. 1 was a sight. Imagine a man's back full of coarse gravel-gouged through the skin.

In approaching the election ground, young men and women could be seen sitting on logs in the woods, eating ginger cakes and drinking St. James Cathedral, Roman Catholic, Rt. Rev. Bisnop cider and brandy. Heap of land to the acre R. V. WHELAN, Fifth street, corner of Hampden; services there. One fellow jumped out of a shanty there where they kept their apple brandy, and swore First Baptist Church, Clay St., East Wheeling, Rev. Wm. that he could whip the man who had anything against him. Everybody seemed too drunk to take much notice of him. Two fellows got to scuffling on a large scaffold, and down it came, causing a general row. Some were knocked down by the falling of the scaffold, and, supposing somebody had knocked them down, pitched in promiscuously. I thought it was time for a-peaceable man to leave, so I took the road."

> AN INFERNAL RETORY. -- Somebody, to the writer of this unknown, tells a joke that may be worth printing, even after making a reasonable deduction for the risk of its being old:

In a small town, in one of the counties of Ohio, a stranger rode up to the door of a tavern, and having dismounted ordered a stall and some oats for his horse. A crowd of loafers—that class of independent citizens who are never equal to decent men except on an election day-swarmed about the bar-room and steps, waiting to be invited up to the counter. Among this crowd the stranger's business was at once the subject Wm. Tell Lodge No. 33 .- Meets amboveeve. of impertinent speculation. One more impu-TY Wednesday evening. PREDURICK MILLER, N.
